Saint Paul's Lutheran Church
Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
June 24th, 2018 – 9:00 a.m.

PROCESSIONAL: Please rise and face the center aisle as the processional cross passes by.

OPENING HYMN: 379 - "O Come, All Ye Faithful"

INVOCATION

P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: He made the storm be still,

C: and the waves of the sea were hushed.

P: Then they were glad that the waters were quiet,

C: and He brought them to their desired haven.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION: Psalm 124:8, 2, Corinthians 6:2

P: "Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth." Since we are gathered to hear God's Word, call upon Him in prayer and praise, and receive the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ in the fellowship of this altar, let us first consider our unworthiness and confess before God and one another that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and that we cannot free ourselves from our sinful condition. Together as His people, we take refuge in the infinite mercy of God our heavenly Father, seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, and saying: God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

C: Almighty God, have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen.

P: "Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation." Upon this, your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God to all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

SERVICE OF THE WORD: Page 152

PSALM OF THE DAY: Psalm 124

C: Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

P: If it had not been the LORD who was on our side— let Israel now say—

Men: if it had not been the LORD who was on our side when people rose up against us,

Women: then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their anger was kindled against us;

Men: then the flood would have swept us away, the torrent would have gone over us;

Women: then over us would have gone the raging waters.

Men: Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as prey to their teeth!

Women: We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowlers;

P: the snare is broken, and we have escaped!

C: Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

OLD TESTAMENT READING: Job 38:1-11

²"Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?"

³Dress for action like a man; I will question you, and you make it known to me. ⁴"Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. ⁵Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it. ⁶ On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone, ⁷ when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy? ⁸ Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb, ⁹ when I made clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling band, ¹⁰ and prescribed limits for it and set bars and doors, ¹¹ and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stayed’?

P: This is the Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

ADULT CHOIR ANTHEM: “This is Amazing Grace”

(Director: Marj Friedmeyer; Accompanist: Twilla Duvall)

EPISTLE READING: 2 Corinthians 6:1-13

¹ Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ² For he says,

“In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you.”

Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.³ We put no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, ⁴ but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, ⁵ beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; ⁶ by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love; ⁷ by truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; ⁸ through honor and dishonor, through slander and praise. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; ⁹ as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and yet not killed; ¹⁰ as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything.

¹¹ We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians; our heart is wide open. ¹² You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections. ¹³ In return (I speak as to children) widen your hearts also.

P: This is the Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Mark 4:35-41

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the fourth chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

P: On that day, when evening had come, Jesus said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd, they took Him with them in the boat, just as He was. And other boats were with Him. And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. But He was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke Him and said to Him,

C: Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?

P: And He awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great fear and said to one another,

C: Who then is this, that even wind and sea obey Him?

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.
