SAINT PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH
Sixth Sunday after Pentecost – July 1, 2018

PROCESSIONAL: Please rise and face the center aisle as the processional cross passes by.

OPENING HYMN: 524 – "How Sweet the Name of Jesus Sounds"

INVOCATION

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

OPENING SENTENCES: Lamentations 3:22–23

P: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases;

C: His mercies never come to an end;

P: they are new every morning;

C: great is Your faithfulness.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

P: Hear, O LORD, and be merciful to me! O LORD, be my helper! Since we are gathered to hear God's Word, call upon Him in prayer and praise, and receive the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ in the fellowship of this altar, let us first consider our unworthiness and confess before God and one another that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and that we cannot free ourselves from our sinful condition. Together as His people, we take refuge in the infinite mercy of God, our heavenly Father, seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, and saying: God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

C: Almighty God, have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen.

P: For the Lord will not cast off forever, but, though He cause grief, He will have compassion according to the abundance of His steadfast love; for He does not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men. Upon this, your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God to all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

LET US PRAY..

PSALM OF THE DAY: Psalm 30

C: Hear, O LORD, and be merciful to me! O LORD, be my helper!

P: I will extol You, O LORD, for You have drawn me up and have not let my foes rejoice over me.

MEN: O LORD my God, I cried to You for help, and You have healed me.

WOMEN: O LORD, You have brought up my soul from Sheol; You restored me to life from among those who go down to the pit.

MEN: Sing praises to the LORD, O you His saints, and give thanks to His holy name.

WOMEN: For His anger is but for a moment, and His favor is for a lifetime.

MEN: Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

WOMEN: As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved."

MEN: By Your favor, O LORD, You made my mountain stand strong;

WOMEN: You hid your face; I was dismayed.

MEN: To You, O LORD, I cry, and to the Lord I plead for mercy:

WOMEN: "What profit is there in my death, if I go down to the pit?"

MEN: Will the dust praise You? Will it tell of Your faithfulness?

WOMEN: Hear, O LORD, and be merciful to me! O LORD, be my helper!"

MEN: You have turned for me my mourning into dancing; You have loosed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness,

WOMEN: that my glory may sing Your praise and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever!

ALL: Hear, O LORD, and be merciful to me! O LORD, be my helper!"

OLD TESTAMENT READING: Lamentations 3:22-33

P: This is the Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

EPISTLE READING: 2 Corinthians 8:1-9, 13-15

P: This is the Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

GOSPEL: Mark 5:21-43

Response before Gospel: Glory be to Thee, O Lord!

P: And when Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered about Him, and He was beside the sea. Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and seeing Him, he fell at His feet and implored Him earnestly, saying,

C: "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay Your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live."

P: And He went with him. And a great crowd followed Him and thronged about Him. And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. She had heard the reports about Jesus and came up behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment. For she said,

C: “If I touch even His garments, I will be made well.”

P: And immediately the flow of blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. And Jesus, perceiving in Himself that power had gone out from Him, immediately turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched My garments?” And His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing around You, and yet You say, ‘Who touched Me?’” And He looked around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.” While He was still speaking, there came from the ruler’s house some who said, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?” But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” And He allowed no one to follow Him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. They came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and Jesus saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. And when He had entered, He said to them, “Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at Him. But He put them all outside and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with Him and went in where the child was. Taking her by the hand He said to her, “Talitha cumi,” which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.” And immediately the girl got up and began walking (for she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement. And He strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.
